New acquisitions

The Museum has recently been donated a Binders Press and a number of photographs

ROSTER

Would you like to help keep the Museum open? If so, we'd love to hear from you!

Being on the roster usually involves only two hours every six weeks or so and is great for meeting other people interested in Devonport's history and getting more acquainted with the Museum's collections.

Current Roster Members:

If swapping days, please arrange this yourselves and advise Joyce of the changes made.

New Victoria Road display

Come along and see the New Victoria Rd display in the Museum.

A new pictorial representation of Victoria Rd recreates the main street of yesteryear!

Have you paid your subs this year? If not, you can use the form below and send it in to the address given.

(Next year we will be re-aligning the subscriptions so that they fall due at the AGM.)

Devonport Borough Council Scrapbooks 1886 - 1989

Collated newspaper cuttings relating to Devonport Borough Council business and happenings, local events and local and regional issues during the 103 years of the Council's existence.

A full set of this invaluable resource is now held at the Museum. An online index is available via the North Shore Libraries catalogue at <http://www.shorelibraries.govt.nz>
