Carving

Have you seen the beautiful carving above the main entrance?

This was done by Master Carver Mike Davies (pictured right) and was copied from a very hazy photo of the original church.

Garden

We will be looking for volunteers next year to help occasionally in the garden around the museum when the building is finally finished. If you have a couple of hours to spare and would like to join others, please ring Helen Cornelius 445 2776.

Building project

We hope to start updating the kitchen in the New Year when funding is approved.

Passchendaele exhibition

The museum loaned one of the glass cabinets for this exhibition at Fort Takapuna. Well worth a visit - open every day until Sunday 15 November.

Recent Acquisitions

We have received some wonderful print material from the family of ex-Mayor in the 1930's Earnest Aldridge, the basket from the Conway bike, and an urn and crockery for the kitchen.

Heritage Open Day

This was a wonderful sunny day with a steady stream of visitors who enjoyed a sumptuous afternoon tea (thanks to all our wonderful bakers!), watched the Devonport Spinners and enjoyed music from the Takapuna Grammar jazz combo under the trees. Allister Campbell entertained the children with his model boat making, most of which sailed well in the pool he had set up. Kids also enjoyed the presence of the Devonport Fire Brigade truck, a beautiful vintage car and John Watson's vintage motorbike.
